SWIMMING
LESSONS

You OTTER
learn how to swim and float.

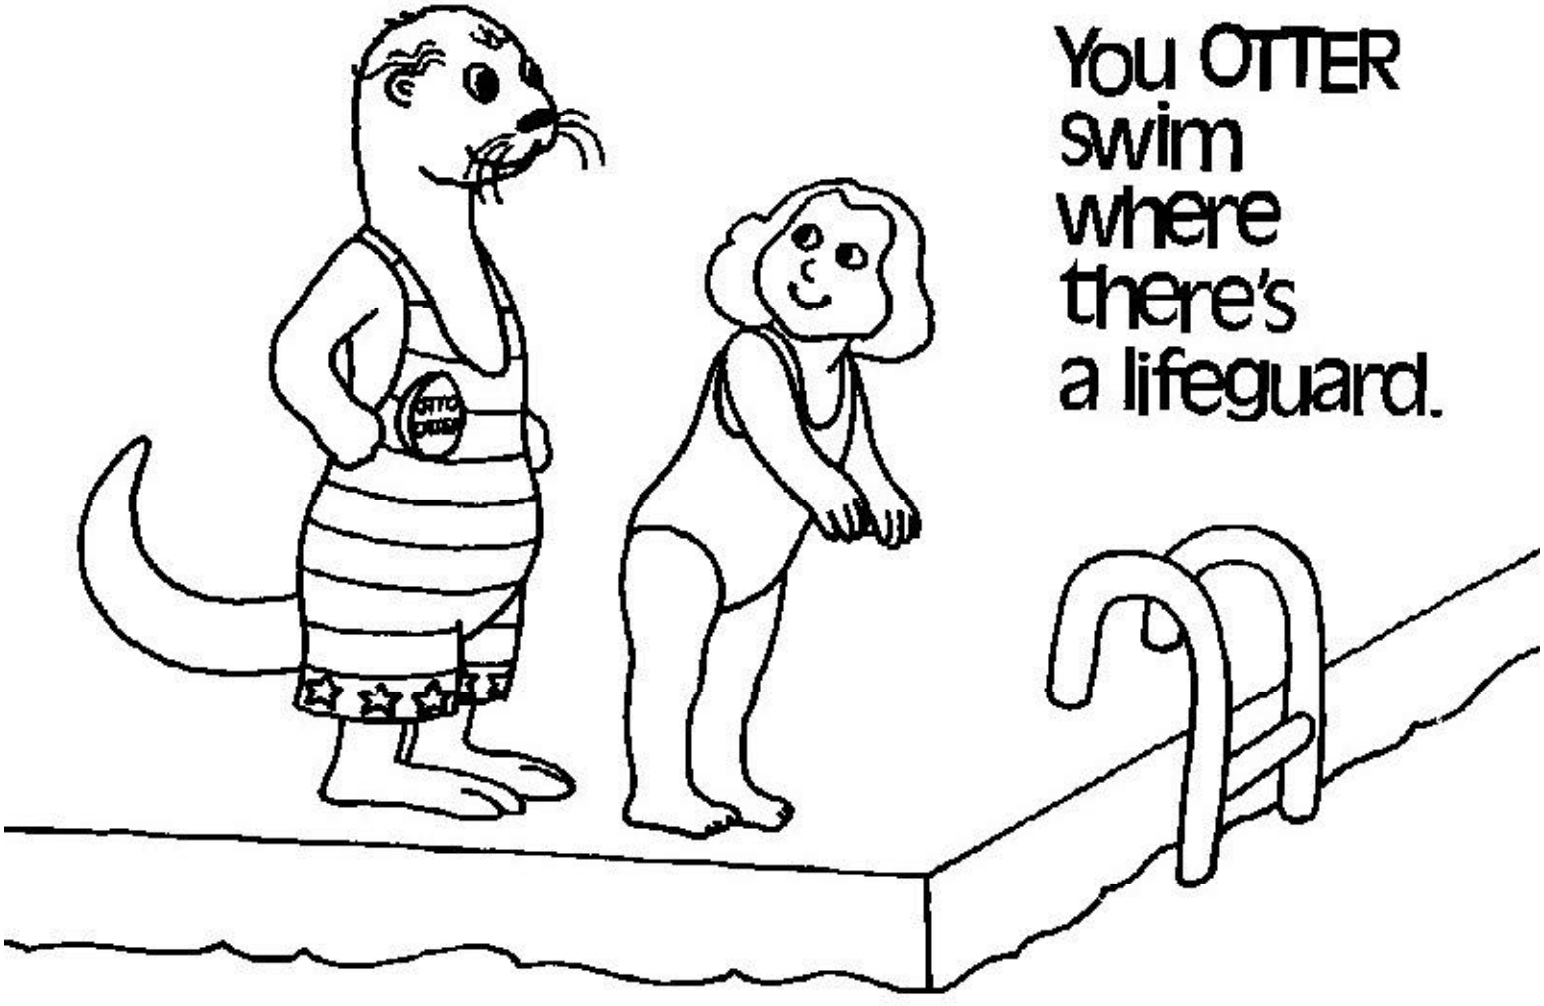
You OTTER
know how to be safe in a boat.



You OTTER
swim
where there's a lifeguard.

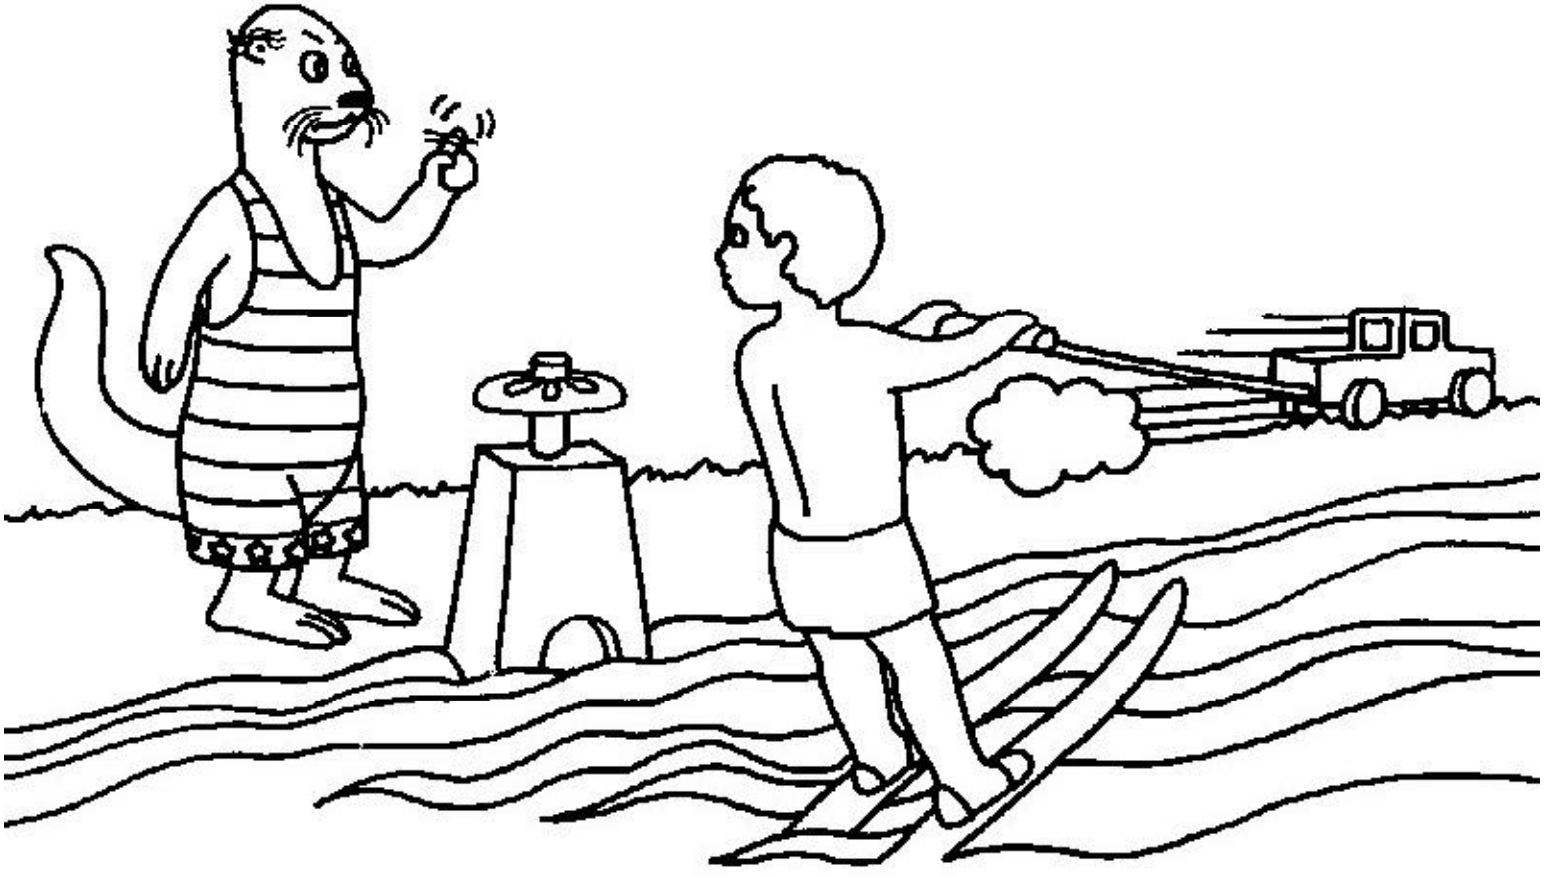
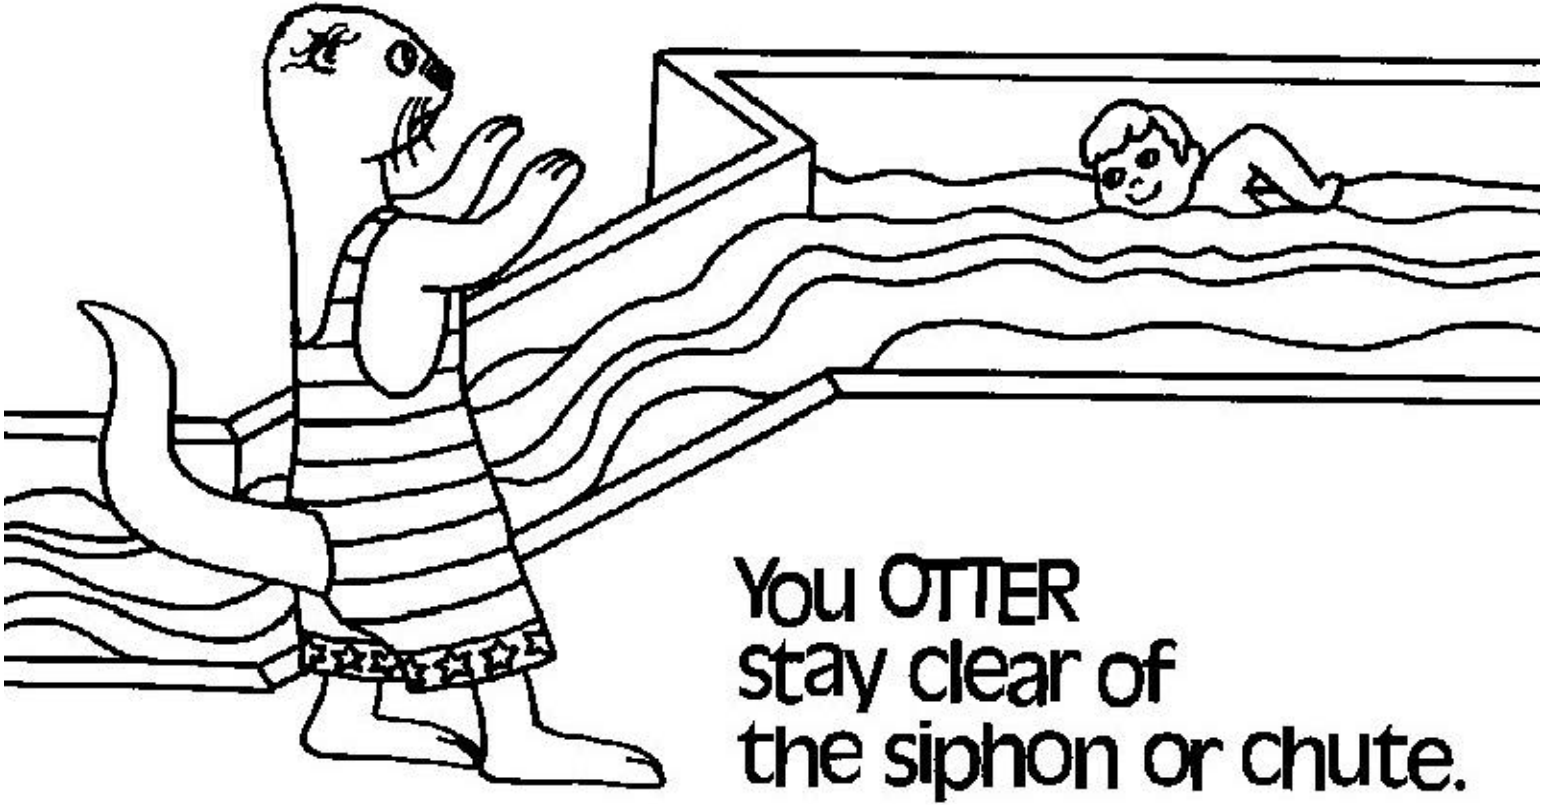
You OTTER be able to restore breathing.
You may need to know someday.

You OTTER feel responsible
to keep little tots away.



You OTTER realize
danger is not very cute.



You OTTER
stay clear of
the siphon or chute.

You OTTER not take those dangerous tube rides.

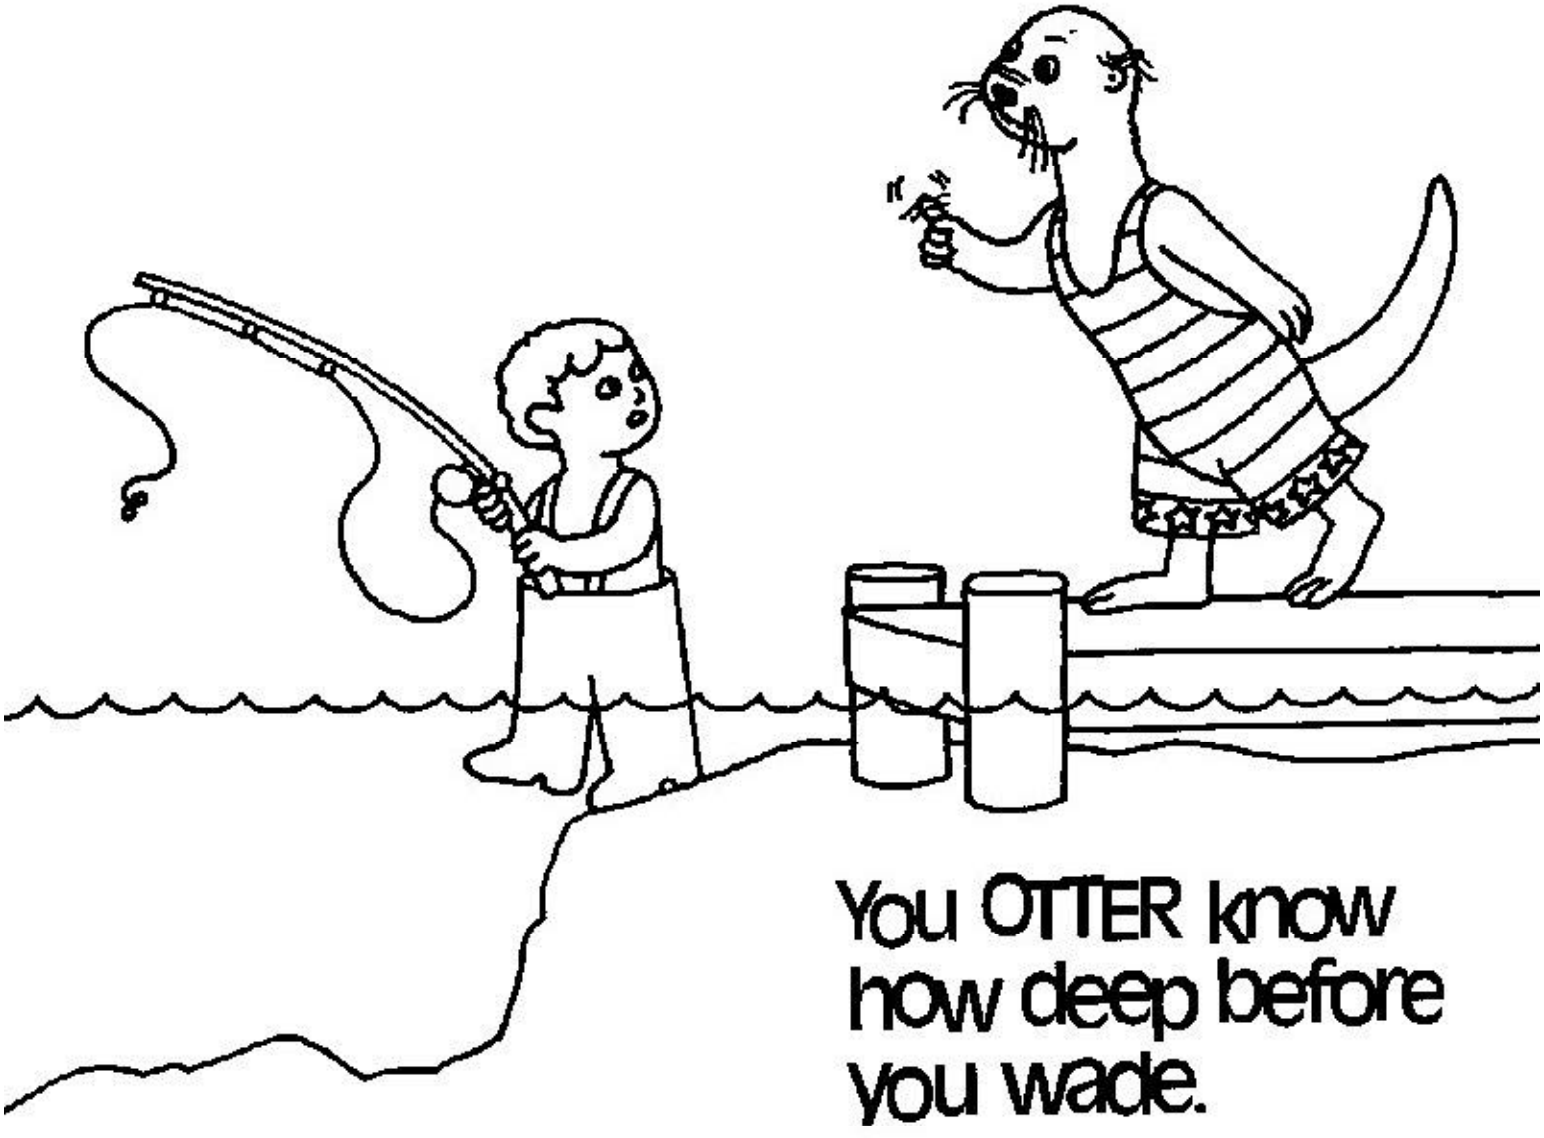
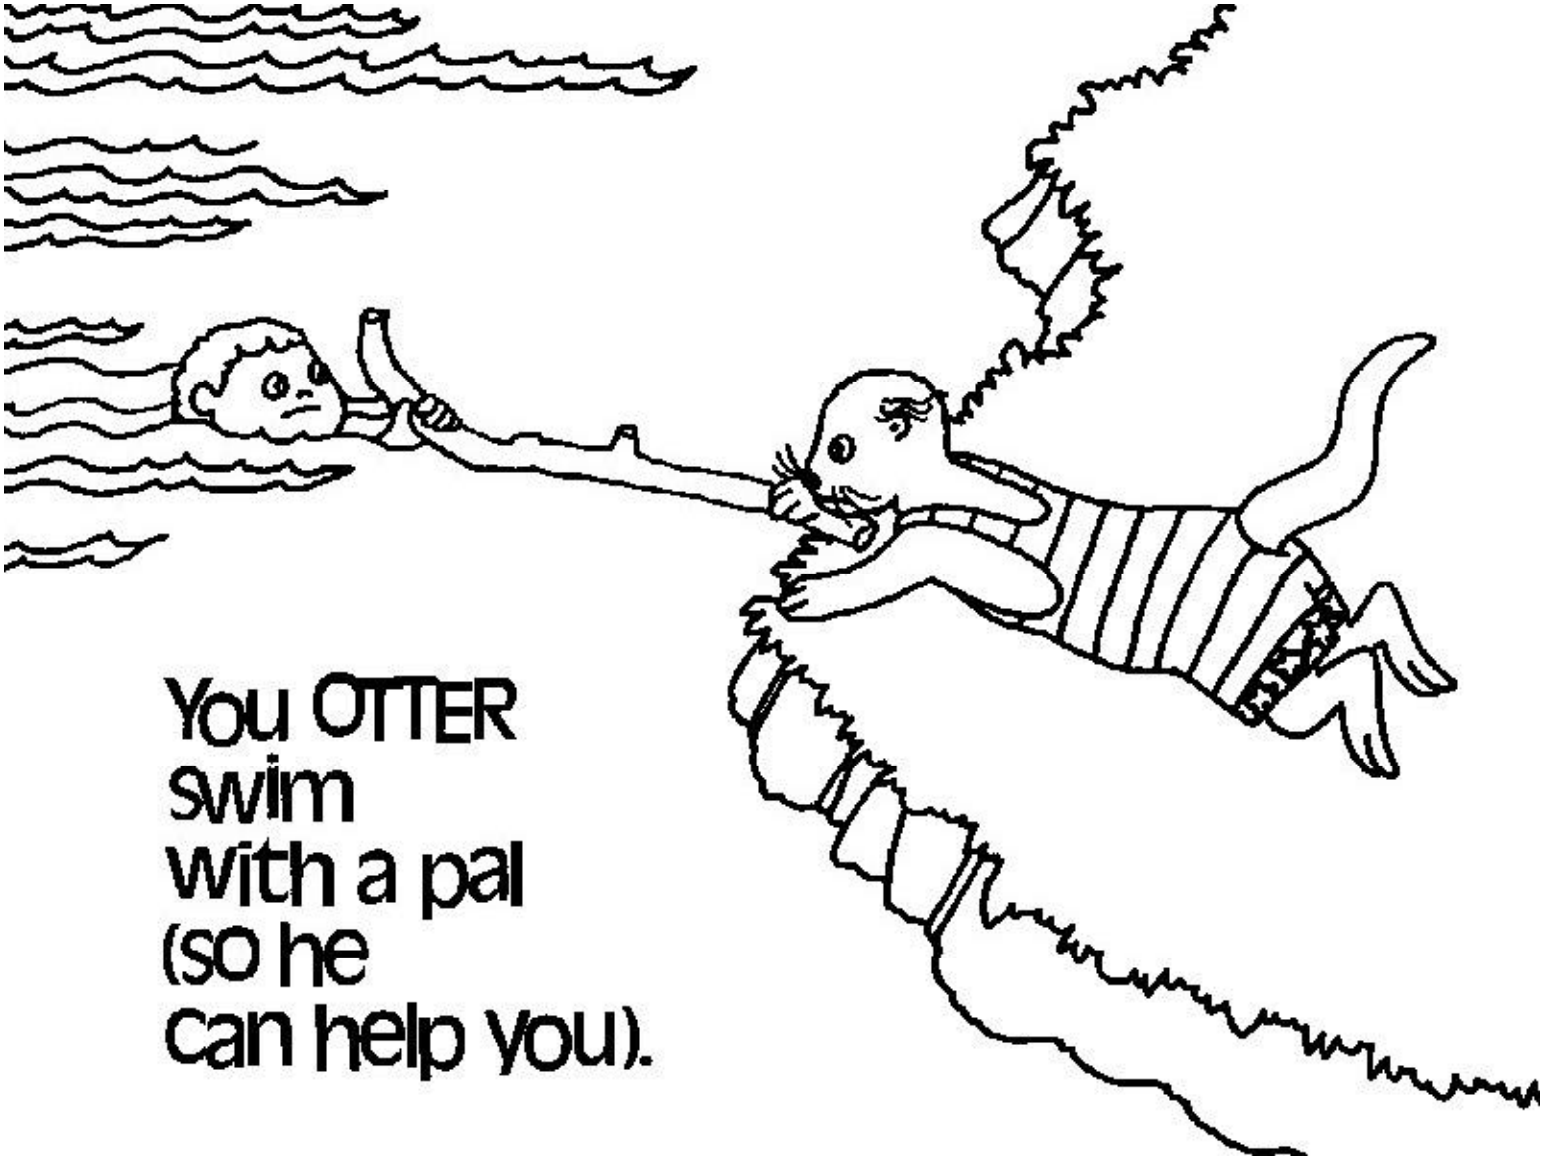
You OTTER stay out
where there's concrete
or steep slippery sides.



You OTTER know
how deep before
you wade.

You OTTER obey signs
(and rules that are made).



You OTTER
swim
with a pal (so he can help you).

You OTTER swim with a life saving station nearby.

You OTTER
always swim
with one of your pals.

You OTTER know special things about rivers and canals.

You OTTER play safely even in your own yard.