Paul:

Enclosed is the Fort Mojave Indian Tribe's revised estimate of Colorado River diversions for 2010.

The numbers for California have been reduced from 15,000 acre feet to 14,150 acre feet reflecting the Bureau of Reclamation's request for 2,570 acre feet of I.O.P payback. The Arizona and Nevada remain the same.

The payback will be accomplished by forbearing the diversion of 2,570 acre feet.

Please do not hesitate to contact be should you have any questions or concerns.

Sincerely

John Algots, Director
Department of Physical Resources
