Questions and Answers

- Q1. In Schedule 1, Bid Items 3, 4, 5, 6, & 7 all use the word "refurbish". Please define the word refurbish, as it refers to each item.
- A1. Based upon industry terminology, the term means to make like new condition.
- Q2. Gearboxes are to be delivered to the Government warehouse completely assembled. At that point the Government takes possession. It is my understanding that they are to be disassembled by Government personnel, hoisted into place and reassembled by Government personnel. If proper O&M manuals are provided and problems occur due to improper re-assembly, who is responsible?
- A.2 The Government will take possession of materials as described in the specifications upon inspection and acceptance at time of delivery by a Government representative. The Government will be responsible for materials during assembly.
