Demo Web Application Code

A deployable web application is available in the form of a Flasher Builder export file. The file contains the source code for a web mapping application that demonstrates the capability of linking map features to related documents store in a SharePoint document library.

Please contact Greg Gault, ggault@usbr.gov or 208.378.5325, for additional information.