

Letter #: 627
Date Received: 12/20/2022
Sender Names: 222: Jon Broholm
Emails: 222: [REDACTED]
Organizations:
Subject: Colorado River management

This email has been received from outside of DOI - Use caution before clicking on links, opening attachments, or responding. [REDACTED]

To the Project Manager:

It's been clear for a long time that it will be impossible to sustain dam operations at both Lake Powell and Lake Mead. Please do not wait any longer to create and implement plans to decommission Glen Canyon Dam, sustain flows through the Grand Canyon, and consolidate water storage in Lake Mead. Managers, elected officials, and water users need to look at the situation realistically and act accordingly. Please act now.

Respectfully,
Jon Broholm

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]