

SIX COMPANIES OKEH MEMORIAL

Support of Six Companies Inc. is to be given the Central Labor Council of Boulder City, in the building and erection on Boulder dam a tablet in memoriam of those who have lost their lives in the construction of the Boulder dam and its appurtenances, R. W. Oliver, chairman of the council's memorial committee, said today.

Six Companies Inc. has authorized the committee to arrange for payroll deductions in regard to the soliciting of contributions from the companies' employes, it was learned today.

Oliver said today that the drive for the necessary funds would be started within the near future, now that the boost had been given the committee by the huge contracting firm.
