

B & W Employe Is Injured at Work

Albert Dunkleberg, employe of the Babcock and Wilcox company, received a fractured and badly lacerated hand Monday when the injured member became caught between an air ram and the side of one of the large pipe sections on which Dunkleberg was working.

The accident happened at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon, in the upper Arizona penstock. Dunkleberg is being treated at the Boulder City hospital.