

Rain Halts Work On Dam Project

A driving rain in Boulder City this morning necessitated the removal of from 550 to 600 men from the dam and power house, according to reports from the time office of Six Companies Inc.

Rain fell throughout the early part of the morning and gave evidences of continuing throughout the day.