

DAM WORK WILL HALT JULY 4TH

A forty-eight hour shut-down of all Six Companies Inc. work on Boulder dam will be observed on Thursday, July 4th, and Friday, July 5th, according to an announcement made today at the office of the superintendent of Six Companies Inc. this morning.

The closing of all work will go into effect and will remain closed until 11:30 p. m. Friday, July 5, when the graveyard shift will resume operations.

Six Companies Inc. employes and their families will be permitted to visit the crest of the dam on Thursday, July 4, between the hours of 4 and 5 p. m. Company badges will serve as passes on this date.

All government work will cease July Fourth, this being recognized as a legal holiday.
