

2,501 TOURISTS VIEW DAM WORK

July 4 and the day preceding brot a total of 2,501 visitors to Boulder City in 1,378 cars, records from the Boulder police department show this morning.

On Thursday 1,041 tourists in 337 cars were admitted to the dam community to see the wonders of the world's largest engineering project, and yesterday a total of 1,460 tourists in 439 cars were checked thru the reservation gate.