

Here's Chuckle On Chuck Tender Who Got Stuck

12/21/31

A mining Irishman told Eddie Riggle this one as the Arizona safety expert gave him a ride to Boulder City the other day.

“Yes, I’ve bin workin’ yer ould dam, an’ I’ll say ye have a very foine canyon down there and a lot o’ foine fellers on the job—

“But they’s at least one feller down there’s not onto his job worth a damn! I was a-workin’ away one day in the tunnel an’ I sees this chucktender’s a little oncertin-like what he’s a-doin’—acts as if he’s scared to move. An’ finally I sez to him, I sez, ‘you don’t exactly know what it’s all about, son, do ye.’

“Well, he looks around to see ‘t nobody else is listin’ in, an’ he tells me, ‘I hired out as chucktender thinkin’ I was goin’ to get to handle food, an’ they shoved me off down here!’”
