

B. C. Officers To Get New Uniforms

Boulder City U. S. marshalls soon will appear in their new winter uniforms, the first having arrived recently.

The uniforms are of forest gray, with Sam Brown belts and enclosed holsters. They will have buttons with imprints of the bureau of reclamation buffalo.

Officers who have served a year or more on the reservation will have a blue and gold stripe, across each forearm.

The chief's uniform will have four stars on the shoulders and also insignia, while sergeants will have three brown chevrons on the sleeve.
