

Willard Pinchard Passes in Boulder

---

Willard Pinchard, 35, Boulder dam worker, died in the Boulder City hospital at 10:15 last night following a weeks battle against the ravages of pneumonia. Pinchard has been in the hospital since March 28.

Deceased is survived by a widow who resides in Boulder City, and had been working for Six Companies Inc., since November 13, 1931. He was an ex-service man and a member of the American Legion post at Boulder City.

The body of the dead man is at Parks Mortuary, in Boulder City and funeral arrangements will be announced later.