

Bay Preparing to Build Schoolhouse

5-11-32

In the hollow east of Six Companies' warehouse is the nucleus of Contractor I. M. Bay's little colony from which he will work on construction of the new Boulder City school house, for which he recently was awarded the contract.

Already some half dozen tents have sprung up there. Mr. Bay will live there until his new home is completed, which will be in the near future.