

Six Companies Man Banned off Reserve

E. C. Goodin, Six Companies employe, was barred from the reservation this morning by City Manager Sims Ely, following the latter's investigation of an alleged statutory offense committed by the dam worker, according to Ely who announced the banishment today.

Goodin, according to Ely, admitted the act, but said that it was no crime, because of alleged consent of the damaged party.

The alleged attack was supposed to have taken place near the dam workings last Saturday. Goodin returned from Salt Lake last night and was immediately brot before Ely.
