

Carmody Rites To Be Held Friday

Funeral services for Mrs. D. L. Carmody of Boulder City who passed away yesterday morning at the Las Vegas hospital as a result of a paralytic stroke suffered some weeks ago will be held at the Las Vegas Episcopal church tomorrow morning at 10 a. m. Robert Moore will officiate.

Mrs. Carmody was prominent in the social life in Boulder City during her residence there and was also prominent in reclamation circles in Washington, D. C., and in Denver before coming here.

The deceased is survived by her husband, D. L. Carmody, who is a government engineer in Boulder City and by a son, Warfield Munce of Twin Dots, Montana.