

Dam Man Suffers Fractured Skull

7/19/34
Woodrow Roberts, employe of Six Companies Inc., yesterday received a fracture of the skull when he is said to have been struck by a railing knocked loose by a swinging bucket. Roberts' condition, according to officials of the Boulder City hospital, is said to be considerably improved this morning.