

Louis Johnson Out Of Hospital Today

7-27-34
Louis E. Johnson, who, several weeks ago was impaled upon a steel rod when he fell several feet, has been released from the Boulder City hospital. At the time Johnson was injured, it was thought that his condition would prove fatal.

Elliott Miosky, who has been a patient at the hospital for treatment of a badly broken arm, has been released.