

TWO INJURED

George Bednar escaped serious injury when he fell approximately 15 feet from a pipe section last night at The Babcock and Wilcox company's steel fabrication plant. Bednar was treated at the Boulder City hospital for a fractured hand and back injuries. William Robinson, another Babcock and Wilcox company employe, was treated at the Boulder City hospital yesterday for the removal of a piece of steel from his right eye.