

FINGER MANGLED

Andrew Ruth, an employe of the Babcock and Wilcox company, received a badly mangled finger while employed at the huge fabrication plant Monday. The finger, index on the right hand, was amputated at the Boulder City hospital Monday night.

— 0 —

MAN EXPELLED

One man was expelled from the reservation this morning following a charge of drunkenness. No name was released.