

DAM WORKER HURT

Joseph Daley, employed by Six Companies Inc., as a carpenter's helper, received painful injuries yesterday morning, but which are not that serious. Daley, who was working in one of the tunnels, was struck on the head by a falling cement block, and is suffering from scalp lacerations.