

John Page Leaves For Denver Today

John C. Page, office engineer of the Bureau of Reclamation, has left by plane for Denver, Colorado, to spend some time on government business. Page will take a plane out of Denver for Chicago, there to join Mrs. Page and their daughter, Miss Mildred Page, who have been spending several weeks in Chicago with relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Page will, from Detroit, drive a new car back to Boulder City.