

Reclamation Group In Boulder City

10-16-34
A group from the Denver office of the bureau of reclamation arrived in Boulder City yesterday to re-visit the Boulder canyon project.

Included in the party are B. W. Steele, chief designing engineer of dams; E. W. Lane, research engineer; C. M. Day, chief mechanical engineer; Merle E. Nantz and Martin E. Seiler, of the mechanical engineering department.

The group will leave tonight to return to Denver.
