Pittman to Head Bourbon Speakers

United States Senator Key Pittman will head the list of speakers at the monster democratic rally to be held in Elks Hall, Las Vegas, tonight at 8:00 o'clock.

The veteran senior senator, will discuss the issues of the present campaign in his own inimitable style, and will be the principal speaker on the program.

Dick Kirman, democratic nominee for governor, will precede him, as will Harley A. Harmon, pinch hitting for Congressman Jim Scrugham, who is still in bed with injuries from his recent automobile accident at Kingman.

Others who will speak briefly, include: Fred S. Alward, lieutenant-governor; W. G. Greathouse, secretary of state; Henry Schmitt, state controller; Dan Franks, state treasurer; Gray Mashburn, attorney-general; Ray Staley, surveyor-general; Matt Murphy, inspector of mines; George Brodigan, clerk of the supreme court.

Vanguard of Nobles Arrive in This Section for Rites Tonight

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 20. (UP) —Al Jolson, Dick Powell, Clark Gable, George Bancroft, Tom O'Brien, Harold Lloyd, Monte Blue, Jack Warner, Carl Laemmle, Sr., Darrul Zanuck and other lesser lights of the Hollywood movie colony, left this morning with the group of Shriners from Southern California making their first pilgrimage to Boulder Dam.

They will be in Las Vegas and Boulder City thruout the two day period, arriving at the dam site tonight at 9:30 o'clock.

There are ten special trains carrying the Nobles on their trek to Southern Nevada.

Kerak Temple of Reno, 150 strong, arrived in Boulder City shortly after ten o'clock this morning, to take possession of the dam site community in the name of the Ancient Order of Mystic Shrine, and a few minutes later, the wearers of the fez were monarchs of all they surveyed.

Throughout last night and this morning, hundreds of nobles continued to arrive in a steady stream from all over the southwest, and at noon today both Las Vegas and Boulder City were jammed to capacity.

First on the program in Boulder City, was the initiation of some 34 candidates by Kerak Temple. This ceremony was being held in the American Legion hall, and was largely attended by the visiting nobles.

In Los Angeles last night Al Malaikah Temple initiated another 200 candidates in preparation for the gigantic ceremonial to be staged down in the canyon on the upper cofferdam beginning at 11:30 tonight and ending at midnight.

The Los Angeles Shriners are scheduled to start arriving at 9:30, and as soon as all the eight special trains are in, will be packed into a twenty-car train of day coaches which will make the trip over Six Companies railroad into the canyon.

After the ceremonial, a midnight supper will be served at Anderson Brothers mess hall, and then the nobles will be left to their own designs.

Many will trek to Las Vegas to investigate the entertainment possibilities in this community. Others will take to their Pullman beds on the special trains, and come on into town tomorrow morning.

A band concert is on tap in Boulder City at 11:30 tomorrow, with a parade and concert on the program for Las Vegas beginning at 1:30 in the afternoon. The trains will start their journey homeward at 9:30 tomorrow night.
