

Nixon Inquest Is Held Last Night

An inquest was held at the Garrison Mortuary at 7:30 o'clock last night to determine the cause of death of D. C. Nixon of Boulder City.

The jury found that Nixon "came to his death as a result of his head being crushed between two cement buckets," resulting in a fatal accident. The inquiry was conducted by Coroner Marion B. Earl.

Funeral services for the deceased will be conducted at the Garrison Mortuary at 10 o'clock Monday morning, with Parson Tom Stevenson officiating.
