

Pneumonia Claims Boulder Worker

Tom Hulsey, aged 32, employe of Six Companies Inc., died at the Boulder City hospital at 9:15 o'clock Saturday night of pneumonia. Hulsey had been ill for five days, records show.

The deceased man, who has been employed by the contracting firm since April 15 of this year as a cement finisher, is survived by his widow, who resides at 310 North Eleventh street, Las Vegas, and by two children, Mary, age 4, and Louise, age 2. He is survived also by his brother, S. H. Hulsey, employe of Six Companies Inc.

Remains are in the Garrison Mortuary in Las Vegas, and interment is to be in Birmingham, Alabama, it was learned this morning.