

B. C. Police Hunt Crash Car Driver

---

Boulder Police today are searching for the car which crashed into a lamp post located at the corners of Avenue F and Wyoming sometime Saturday night, Chief Ranger W. H. Trimble said this morning.

The post, which is imbedded in a concrete block, was completely uprooted by the crash. Government electricians today were engaged in repairing it.

---

PUT ON PROBATION

---

One man, a Babcock and Wilcox company employe, was held in the Boulder City jail Saturday night after his arrest at the reservation gate on charges of drunkenness and disturbance of the peace. The man was put on probation today by City Manager Sims Ely.