

ALL ROADS TO LEAD TO B. C. ROOSEVELT BALL

Two Halls to Accommodate Crowd Expected At Dance Tonight

1-30-35
All roads tonight, apparently, will lead to the second annual president's birthday ball being held in Anderson's mess hall and at the Boulder City Legion hall tonight. Frank M. Zeller, chairman of the dance committee for the second year, stated today that the total advance ticket sale for the affair were showing remarkably in the last few days.

In addition to the two halls to accommodate the crowds expected, Chip White and his Dam Band, and Clark Higgins and his orchestra will furnish the music.

OF THE ONE dollar admission charge, 30 per cent will be given to the Warm Springs Foundation, which was founded and is actively engaged in the fighting of the dread disease, infantile paralysis, and the remaining 70 per cent will be given to the Boulder City charity fund.

Members of the committee representing the Elks, Legion, Moose, bureau of reclamation, the Babcock and Wilcox company, Six Companies Inc., and the Boulder City company, besides numerous private enterprises, are Frank M. Zeller, chairman, Joe Ratty, Frank Burek, Joe Lipsky, Raymond Griffith, Kenneth K. Surber, John Abercrombie, C. K. Sweet, Bernard Farr, Earl J. Brothers, E. W. Wagner, W. R. Nelson, Jack Phillips, R. W. Oliver, and C. Casaba.

Dancing is from 9 o'clock until 1 o'clock.
