

Small Fire Starts In U. S. Warehouse

---

The Number 1 government warehouse was the scene of a small fire last night about seven-thirty. The fire, which started underneath the loading deck, did a small amount of damage before being extinguished by the local fire departments.

The blaze was caused either by a careless smoker or spontaneous combustion and was quickly put out.