

AUXILIARY HEAD SEES DAM TODAY

Elaborate Program for Entertainment of Guest Tonight Outlined

Honoring Mrs. Albin Charles Carlson, from Minnesota, national president of the American Legion Auxiliary, the Boulder City and Las Vegas auxiliaries joined today in an elaborate program of entertainment.

Following luncheon served at the Green Hut in Boulder City at 1 o'clock, the large party, accompanied by Frank M. Zeller, commander of the Boulder City post of the Legion, made a trip over the Boulder canyon project and a cruise on the Boulder lake to the upstream face of the Boulder dam.

A banquet, in which Legion and Auxiliary members of Las Vegas and Boulder City will participate, will be held at the Apache Cocktail room at 7 o'clock this evening.

The program planned by Mrs. Earl Davison, chairman of the committee, will be as follows: "Star Spangled Banner"; welcoming address and introduction of Mrs. Florence B. Smith of Caliente, department president, as toastmistress of the evening; song of welcome; introduction of National President Tess Carlson; song by Mrs. Marion B. Earl; talk by Lt. Gov. Fred S. Alward; song by the Boulder City unit number 31; address by National President Tess Carlson.

The group from Caliente attending the activities today includes: Mesdames Florence B. Smith, department president; Eleanor Butches, department secretary; Lorena Gottfredson; Salome Scannell and Bonnie Harding.

Mrs. Carlson has just arrived here after a tour of Bryce canyon and Zion National park. From here she will leave for Los Angeles, where she will sail for a trip to visit the Honolulu chapter of the auxiliary. Nevada is the thirty-seventh state visited by Mrs. Carlson since her election as national president of the organization.
