

Roosevelt Ride to Dam Puzzles B. C.

---

How President Roosevelt will ride to Boulder dam from his special train is forming an interesting problem to government officials and to the Boulder City police department, members of which will handle traffic problems during the president's visit here.

It is well-known that President Roosevelt prefers to ride in an open car. So far only one suitable for the occasion has been located in Boulder City. Government cars in Boulder are of the closed variety.