

UTAH GUARDS TO VISIT DAM

Paying a visit to the world's greatest engineering project, the largest military unit ever admitted to Boulder City will arrive at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon when 700 soldiers of the Utah national guard arrive to see Boulder dam, Chief Ranger W. H. Trimble said this morning.

The Utah soldiers, in command of Colonel Carl A. Badger, of Salt Lake City, are returning to the Utah capital after having been reviewed at the San Diego exposition on Utah Day there.
