

A group of Union Pacific railway system officials, headed by Carl Gray, president, and including W. A. Harriman, chairman of the executive committee, and W. M. Jeffers, executive vice-president, spent yesterday afternoon in Boulder City as guests of Frank T. Crowe and Walker R. Young. They were accompanied by Walter Bracken, Nevada representative of the firm.