

NOTABLES FROM OAKLAND VISIT

Oakland officialdom and business men paid Las Vegas and Boulder dam a visit today, flying here from San Diego this morning in a huge Standard Oil company's tri-motored Boeing plane.

Mayor McCracken and City Manager John Hassler led the delegation which included John Brue-ner and his brother Robert, own-ers of Oakland's largest depart-ment store; H. Lyons, of the Lyons Storage and Van company, O. P. Skaggs, of the Skaggs stores, and J. Lincoln, district sales manager of the Standard Oil company, and A. Perry, of the Dodge sales or-ganization in the bay area.

The party was taken to the dam this morning and shown over the project after they had been flown over the dam and the lake before landing at the Western Air Ex-press port in Las Vegas.
