

2 Dam Workmen Injured At Work

---

Two employes of Six Companies Inc., received painful injuries yesterday when a buckling air line caused a scaffolding to fall at the rear of the Nevada valve houses.

George Blanchard and Mike Anderson, who were on the falling scaffolding, fell several feet and as a result Blanchard is at the hospital being treated for a fractured thigh bone. Both of Anderson's wrists were broken in the fall.

---