

Scrugham to Guide Pioche Power Loan

8-10-35

Regardless of the adjournment date of congress, James G. Scrugham, Nevada representative, will remain in Washington until the Pioche power line application for a PWA loan is disposed of, he advises in a letter received this morning.

"I regard this as the most important matter affecting Nevada now pending here in Washington, and I intend to see it thru," the congressman writes.