

B&W Worker, Hurt Saturday, Passes

8-14-35
W. R. Skaloud, Babcock and Wilcox employe, who was injured Saturday night in a fall in the plant at Boulder City, succumbed to his injuries today at the Boulder City hospital.

Skaloud was critically injured when he was struck by a crane and knocked off a pipe, falling some 30 feet, and suffering severe injuries and several broken bones.

Funeral services are awaiting word from Skaloud's father, Charles F. Skaloud, who resides in Georgewest, Texas. The remains are at the Parks Mortuary in Boulder City.