

Recreation Hall

Unit Under Way

12/19/31

Construction of the addition to the recreation hall has been started and work will be pushed forward rapidly. The L-shaped building will be filled out to form a triangle.

When completed this will give much needed space for recreational use, as the hall is filled to its capacity every evening with the men of Boulder City. Present building is insufficient to care for the recreational needs of the men.