

'Miss Boulder Dam' Will Visit Project

"Miss Boulder Dam," Bettina Norberg of Burlingame, California, is expected to arrive in Boulder City via TWA plane tomorrow from San Francisco, and will spend three days visiting points of interest.

Miss Norberg was selected from contestants in 11 western states to represent Boulder dam at the opening of the big relief map of the western area of the nation at the San Francisco exposition. A free plane trip to Boulder dam was one of the prizes awarded to the winner.

She will be a guest of the Grand Canyon-Boulder Dam Tours, Inc., in Boulder City and will stop at the Apache hotel.
