

'Miss Boulder Dam' Visits Boulder Dam

6-24-39

"Miss Boulder Dam," Bettina Norberg of Burlingame, California, made a trip thru Boulder dam last evening and was much impressed by the vastness of the project.

She took a boat trip this afternoon and will take an airplane trip over the dam and surrounding country in the Grand Canyon amphibian this evening.

Later in the evening she will be escorted by Joe Messick to Las Vegas, where she will see the entertainment furnished by the city noted for its spirit of the "old west."

Miss Norberg was selected as "Miss Boulder Dam," from entries thruout the 11 western states, at the San Francisco exposition. As a prize for the contest, she came to Boulder City via TWA plane and is the guest of the Grand Canyon-Boulder Dam Tours, Inc., during her visit, and is stopping at the Boulder Dam hotel.
