

Western Union

Officials at Dam

7-18-37

Roy B. White of New York City, president of the Western Union Telegraph company, and three vice-presidents and one secretary of the company, arrived in Las Vegas today and spent the afternoon on a tour of Boulder dam.

Besides the president of the company, others in the party include: W. C. Titley, W. R. Shute, and D. B. Barnett, vice-presidents; and G. B. Saterlec, secretary.

They are traveling by private car on the Union Pacific railroad. After arriving in Las Vegas today, they were taken to Boulder dam by the Riddle Scenic tours, and were guests of the bureau of reclamation on a specially conducted tour of the project. Returning to Las Vegas they inspected the Las Vegas office of the Western Union and will leave for the coast tonight.