

Six Companies Buy New Movie Camera

Complete equipment for making motion pictures, to show progressive steps in the dam project work, has been purchased by Six Companies, Inc.

A standard Bell and Howell movie camera and all equipment necessary for its operation was delivered recently. Lloyd Ahren, camera man for Paramount, has been taking motion pictures for the past three days of work on the project.