

Xmas Whoopee

Men Not Charged

The extent to which Christmas whoopee can be regulated but not prosecuted in Las Vegas was demonstrated by police during the holiday season recently ended.

For 98 men, jailed to sober up from sprees, were released without preferment of any charge, according to Police Chief Clay Williams.

Cases which warranted resulted in filing of charges, 20 facing charges of various types out of 118 arrested during the Christmas season.
