

Carpenter At Dam Injured In Fall

Allen Jackson, carpenter for Six Companies Inc., was severely injured early Saturday night when he fell approximately 15 feet from a form in the dam on which he was working. Jackson has a badly injured side, and head injuries, although his condition is said by hospital officials not to be serious.

Jackson was received at the B. C. hospital at 9 o'clock.