

BULLSHEAD DAM WORK

Word comes from Senator P. A. McCarran at Washington that the recent order changing the priorities for material to be used on many of the dams and other structures being constructed under authority of the United States Bureau of Reclamation, will not stop work on the "Davis" dam at Bulls-head Canyon.

Senator McCarran states that the Utah Construction Company, the contractors, already has sufficient equipment and materials on hand to enable them to proceed with the work.