

Intuition Tells

Woman of Trouble

2 | 1 | 2 | 3 | 2

An overpowering conviction that some tragedy had befallen her former husband, led Mrs. Isabelle Dupray to call Las Vegas Wednesday evening in an endeavor to locate him, and resulted, after three calls, in her discovering that he was hovering between life and death in the Las Vegas Hospital with several razor wounds in his neck.

Mrs. Dupray told friends that thruout the day she was obsessed with the idea that her ex-husband had suffered some sort of serious misfortune, and by nightfall the thought became so strong she phoned to find out.

The first actual information that her fears were correct, was when she talked to attending physicians late that evening, she stated upon her arrival here last night.

Mrs. E. F. Dupray, present wife of the attorney, also arrived late yesterday to visit her husband, who is now well on the way to recovery.