

NOTICE

---

Cars that are found parked in the restricted area in Boulder City will be towed in and impounded beginning today Police Chief Bud Bodell announced this afternoon. The cars will not be released until the towing charges are paid.

The restricted area consists of the business section, spaces between and surrounding the dormitories, and also the lot on which the Six Companies garage is situated.