

Big Six Man Hurt In Fall off Truck

2726/32
Lorne Craig, Six Companies Inc., employe, was badly injured shortly after midnight this morning when he either jumped or fell from one of the trucks bringing the men up to Boulder City from the river.

Craig's leg was broken when the rear wheel of the truck passed over him and he may be suffering further injuries.

The police car rushed Craig to the Six Companies hospital where he was reported to be resting easily today.

T. D. Rice Suffers Burns in Backfire

T. D. Rice is in the Boulder City hospital suffering from first and second degree burns sustained in a furnace backfire Wednesday afternoon in dormitory 5. M. McInerny, bull cook, administered first aid and had the furnace tender rushed to the hospital, where he will remain for several days.