

Ambercrombie

Dies Of Injuries

5/11/32

John R. Ambercrombie, 29, victim of an automobile accident which took place near Boulder City, Saturday, died this morning from the injuries he received. Ambercrombie, a truck driver, was in a truck loaded with men which was struck by a car driven by John Thrasher.

Ambercrombie received a fractured skull and internal injuries which resulted in his death.

The deceased is survived by a widow who resides in Las Vegas. The body will be shipped from the Palm funeral home tonight or tomorrow for Cushing, Oklahoma, it was announced today.