

Worker At Boulder Crushed to Death

Run over and crushed by a gantry train in tunnel four Walter Hardesty, 31, a concrete finisher for the Six Companies Inc., was fatally injured yesterday morning at 4:30. Hardesty was rushed to the Boulder City hospital and lived until 8 o'clock Sunday evening.

Deceased is survived by a widow, residing in Las Vegas, and three children Lloyd, 10, Sadie, 8 and Nadine, 7 months. He came to work on the Boulder canyon project in March of this year.